HARVARD COLLEGE

Bulk of Fortune Left by William F. Milton Will Go to Cambridge University After Death of His Wife.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Cambridge, Mass., March 19.—Harvard University is rejoicing to-day because of two splendid bequests.

By the will of the late William P. Milton of Pittsfield and New York, filed today for probate in the Berkshire Court, Harvard University will receive the bulk of Mr. Milton's wealth, estimated at considerably mere than $1,000,000.

Although no inventory of Mr. Milton's property has been filed, he is said to have been worth between $1,00,000 and $2,00,000. Mr. Milton died in New York March 1. He served throughout the Civil War in the Twentieth Infantry, enlisting as a private and being discharged as a Brevet Major. After the war he settled in Boston and engaged in the Eastern trade, principally in tea, and made a large fortune. On his redirement from business he bought a large tarm in the eastern part of Pittsfield, where he had since spent his sunimers.

COUPLE'S HONEYMOON INTERRUPTED BY FRIENDS

Charles F. Novak and Mrs. Helen Cohen Wed Quietly in East St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Novak's honeynoen at the Hotel Beers was rudely interrepted by friends of the couple who solved the mystery of a quiet marriage in East St, Louis last Tuesday and traced them to the uptown hostelry.

Novak and Mrs. Helen Cohen left the house at No. 4109 West Pine boulevard house at No. 409 West Pine boulevard. Tuesday and went to East St. Louis, where they were married by a Justice of the Peace. Mrs. Cohen, whose maiden name was Segoenstadt, obtained a divorce last year from her first husband, l. A. Cohen, a wealthy wholesale merchant. Friends of the couple, who are well known in Jewish circles, surmised that the wedding was the result of an elopement, but this has been denied by Mrs. Novak, Her divorce from Cohen caused a stir in Jowish society at the time of the trial.

Mr. and Mrs. Novak departed yesterday for an extended tour of the West.
